

Fundraising Ask

Not sure what to say when asking your friends and family for donations towards your Feast for Freedom? Here's some suggested wording you can use, just make sure to tailor it with your personal Feast details and fundraising page URL.

When you want to provide detail:

Dear friend,

I have some exciting news... I am hosting a Feast for Freedom in support of the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre.

The ASRC is a place of refuge and hope that provides food, housing, healthcare, education, employment and legal services - restoring dignity and hope for 7,000 people seeking safety in Australia each year.

My Feast for Freedom will be raising funds for this important work. Can you help me reach my goal and help support the ASRC too?

I would really appreciate any donation you can give and you can help me right now on my online fundraising page.

- $25 can provide two weeks of hot meals to someone seeking asylum
- $55 can pay for a night of crisis accommodation for a person with nowhere else to go
- $88 can fund a months worth of vital medicine for a young family
- $180 can help fund a mental health worker for the day

Your donation is tax deductible and you'll get a receipt straight away. In advance, thanks for the support - it means a lot.

When you want to keep it short and succinct:

Join my Feast for Freedom in support of the ASRC.

Help me give a night of a night of crisis accommodation for a person with nowhere else to go with a $55 donation.
